Duke Kunshan University Undergraduate Textbook Fee Exemption Form

Duke Kunshan University ("DKU" or the "University") Undergraduate Program expects that students obtain textbooks (including, but not limited to, printed books, eBooks, and software) through legal channels. For convenience of students, the Learning Resources Management at DKU Library is assigned to purchase and deliver required textbooks to students prior to the beginning of each session. The textbook fee is charged to the student account and deducted from the student's direct deposit.

The deposit for the required textbooks is used for every course students enroll in, and it covers the book price, import fee, freight charge, tax and any other relevant expenses required in the ordering and delivery of the textbooks. The University DOES NOT make any profit from the purchase or delivery.

Although students are highly recommended to purchase the required textbooks from the DKU Library using the deposit system, they may complete this Textbook Fee Exemption Form 6 weeks before the new session billing date if they prefer to obtain their own textbooks by themselves. The opt out option remains in effect for all future sessions in which the students are enrolled at DKU, unless an opt in form is submitted to cancel the opt out option.

Exemption Request (To be completed by the individual requesting a textbook fee deposit exemption)

☐ I request to opt out of the prepaid textbook fee.

Individual Acknowledgement:

I hereby confirm that I am fully informed of the current DKU Textbook Policy. By electing to opt out of the textbook fee deposit, I understand that I am responsible for getting all and correct textbooks that are required for each course on my own through legal channels prior to the beginning of my class and I understand that failure to do so may impede my ability to stay current in class and may affect my academic success. I understand that the University assumes no responsibility for any delay or absence of textbooks obtained on my own. I understand that if for any reason I do not obtain my textbooks timely or legally, it is not the responsibility of DKU to provide any accommodations.

I also understand that DKU Library will no longer be responsible for distributing any of my textbooks, unless I submit the opt in form 6 weeks ahead of the billing date of the next term. The opt in option remains in effect for all future sessions in which I am enrolled at DKU.

By my signature, I acknowledge that I have read, understand, and agree to the above statement, and I hereby submit my request for an exemption.
